

CRS REQUEST FOR QUOTE

Background - Catholic Relief Services

Catholic Relief Services (CRS) was founded in 1943 by the Catholic Bishops of the United States to serve World War II survivors in Europe. Today, it is the official international humanitarian agency of the U.S. Catholic community. It provides support to impoverished and disadvantaged people in 91 countries overseas based solely on need, regardless of their race, religion or ethnicity. Within the United States, CRS engages Catholics to live their faith in solidarity with the poor and suffering of the world. CRS works with individuals, dioceses, parishes, schools and organizations throughout the United States to offer Catholics at home concrete ways to contribute to the progress of the world by helping the poorest and most vulnerable overseas improve their lives and helping to build a world free from the devastating effects of poverty, war and injustice.

Dear Sir / Madam:

Subject: Apple ICT4D Project

CRS is calling out a 'brand name', Apple, for this public tender for the following reason:

- We recognize that Apple products cost more than their Android counter parts, but we have found that the extra cost is worth in the duration, quality, ease of use and maintenance of the device throughout its life time and the return of investment is worth the extra funds spent. Compared to the Apple devices we have found their Android counterparts to have a lower life time and higher maintenance need.

No other agreement or quotation, Vendor acknowledgement, any document purporting to modify the Contract Documents, CRS’ failure to object to additional provisions in or attached to any invoice, acknowledgment or PO or other document submitted by Vendor (regardless of whether the Vendor’s forms indicate that the terms and conditions therein contained are controlling and cannot be varied), will be binding upon CRS unless made in writing, signed by an authorized representative of CRS’ Purchasing Department issuing the PO and made a formal attachment of the PO. Captions are inserted only for convenience and are not to be construed as part of the Contract Documents.

2. Changes. CRS may at any time, make changes by written Change Order within the general scope of the PO as to: items to be provided or services to be performed; method of shipment or packing; and schedule and place of delivery and/or completion of services. If any such change causes an increase or decrease in the cost of, or the time required for performance of this PO, an equitable adjustment shall be made by written amendment to this PO. Nothing shall excuse the Vendor from proceeding with the PO as changed. Vendor agrees that any Change Order accepted by CRS in writing constitutes a full and final settlement and accord and satisfaction of all effects of the change upon all aspects of the Contract Documents.

3. Packaging. All items shall be suitably packed, marked (each package marked with CRS’ order number, PO number and package total) and shipped in accordance with the requirements of common carriers and in a manner that will prevent damage in transit. Vendor shall route shipment in accordance with instructions issued by CRS’ Purchasing Department. In the absence of contrary payment terms in the PO (in which case the terms of the PO will control), the amount properly payable under the Contract Documents, will be paid by CRS within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt and acceptance of the goods and/or services by CRS and an invoice therefor provided that CRS does not dispute any part of the requested payment. Amounts paid under the PO shall be invoiced by Vendor and paid by CRS in U.S. dollars.

9. Acceptance. Payment for the goods and/or services described in this PO does not constitute acceptance of the goods or services. All goods and/or services are subject to CRS' inspection and rejection upon receipt of the good or completion of the service. Unless otherwise provided on the face of the PO, upon delivery of the good or completion of the service, CRS will have the right to the testing of the goods (including each component thereof) and inspection of the services performed up to forty-five (45) days after delivery of the good. CRS reserves the right to accept or reject, in whole or in part, partial or excess deliveries of goods.

10. CRS Property. In the event that CRS has provided to Vendor any property for the Vendor's performance under the PO, the property of CRS shall remain the property of CRS. 11. Assignment. Vendor shall not assign or transfer its rights, any duties or delegate or sublet its performance or any duties hereunder, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of CRS. Any attempted assignment without CRS' prior written consent shall be void and constitute a material breach of the Contract Documents. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of, and be binding upon the Parties, their respective successors and permitted assigns.

12. Unless authorized by CRS in writing, the name of Catholic Relief Services-USCCB or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates will not be used in Vendor's advertising.

Majeure, the Party claiming inability to perform, shall be excused from such performance to the extent of such prevention, restriction, interference or delay, provided that the Party shall use its reasonable efforts to avoid or remove such causes of nonperformance and shall continue performance whenever such causes are removed. "Force Majeure" means: acts of God; acts, regulations, orders, decrees, or laws of any government or agency thereof that are not due to or caused by any action or inaction of the Party affected; war; civil commotion; labor disturbances; epidemic; or failure of suppliers, public utilities or common carriers which in any such case are beyond the reasonable control of the Party claiming the benefit of Force Majeure. The Party affected by such Force Majeure condition shall promptly notify the other Party of the existence of such condition, its effect on the ability to perform, and its anticipated duration. In CRS' sole discretion, in the event that Vendor fails or is unable to make any delivery or deliveries of products sold and/or services performed hereunder when due, or under same conditions as when the order was placed, CRS may, upon five (5) days written notice, terminate this PO and all obligations thereunder.

14. Records and Audit. Vendor shall and shall ensure that its subcontractors shall, maintain a true and correct set of records according to generally accepted accounting principles for a period commencing upon the execution of the PO and expiring three years after completion of Vendor's performance under the PO, or such greater period required under applicable law. At any time during this period and upon request by CRS, Vendor shall cooperate fully with CRS and provide CRS with relevant records including proof of required licenses and permits, if applicable. CRS may inspect those records and audit Vendor's compliance with this PO on Vendor's premises during normal business hours, and may reproduce such records and retain copies. The right to audit shall include subcontractors in which goods or services are subcontracted by Vendor.

a. Intellectual Property. Vendor agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless CRS, its affiliates and their respective customers, officers, directors, and employees for all damages, liabilities, losses, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising out of any and all claims that any good and/or service infringes a patent, copyright, trade secret or other intellectual property right. If such claim is made, or appears likely to be made, Vendor agrees to procure for CRS and its affiliates ownership of each good at no additional cost to CRS or its affiliates as required by the PO; or modify the good so that it becomes non-infringing, provided that substantially the same function is performed by the modified good. If CRS determines that the foregoing is not reasonably available, in addition to the foregoing obligation to indemnify and without limiting any other rights and remedies available to CRS, CRS may return the good to Vendor in exchange for a full refund of all fees and expenses paid for such good, related services and dependent goods.

b. Breach/Negligence. Vendor agrees to defend, indemnify and hold CRS and its affiliates and their respective officers, directors and employees harmless from and against any and all claims, damages, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) and liability arising out of:

In the event that the PO covers services performed on property owned by a third party, Vendor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the property owner to the same extent it agreed to do so as to CRS.

c. CRS shall have the right, but not the obligation to control the defense or settlement of any claim or lawsuit covered by Vendor's indemnity, and at CRS' option, Vendor shall at Vendor's expense:

(1) defend all actions based thereon, or (2) pay CRS all attorney's fees, consultant fees and all costs and other expenses arising from the defense and settlement thereof.

16. Insurance. Prior to the commencement of any work on CRS property or the property of others on behalf of CRS, Vendor shall furnish to CRS an insurance certificate that demonstrates that this coverage has been procured and will remain in force and effect until the services have been completed and accepted. Failure to maintain such insurance coverage shall constitute a material breach of the PO.

The provisions of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods are expressly excluded from this PO. Any action brought under the PO shall be conducted in the English language.

18. Waiver and Severability. The failure by either Party to invoke or enforce any provision of the PO shall in no way be considered a waiver of such provisions or in any way affect the validity of the PO. Any PO provision that is prohibited or unenforceable in a jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof; and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Without limiting the foregoing, Vendor, and each of its subcontractors, agents and employees, shall comply with all provisions of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of the United States (15 U.S.C. 78dd-1 and 2) in the performance of the work, and shall not take any action that could result in CRS, or any of its affiliates becoming subject to any action, penalty, or loss of benefits under such Act.

b. Products Free from Unsafe and Harmful Conditions. In addition to any other representations or warranties herein made and set forth, and not in limitation thereof, the Vendor hereby certifies that at the time of delivery the products, supplies and/or equipment delivered to CRS hereunder are free from unsafe and harmful conditions and comply with all applicable federal, state and local safety and health laws. In the event a good sold to CRS does not so conform to all applicable federal, state and local safety and health laws, CRS may return the good for correction or replacement at Vendor's expense. Services performed by the Vendor that do not conform to all applicable federal, state and local safety and health laws and/or regulations must be corrected by Vendor at Vendor's expense or in the sole discretion of CRS, by CRS at Vendor's expense if the Vendor fails to make the appropriate correction within twenty-four (24) hours of notice of such nonconformity.

Prior to the commencement of any work under the PO, the shipment of any such goods or the use of any hazardous chemicals as defined under any regulations relating to OSHA and any applicable state regulation, Vendor shall provide CRS with Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS) for all such products and chemicals used by Vendor on the work site, incorporated into the work, required for the installation of the Work or shipped to CRS, and Vendor agrees to advise all workers of the use of such products by Vendor in the performance under the PO.
