Annex C—Definitions (Applicable to U.S. Offerors Only)

Small Business (SB)

The Small Business Administration (SBA), for most industries, defines a "small business" either in terms of the average number of employees over the past 12 months, or average annual receipts over the past three years. In addition, SBA defines a U.S. small business as a concern that: is organized for profit; has a place of business in the US; operates primarily within the U.S. or makes a significant contribution to the U.S. economy through payment of taxes or use of American products, materials or labor; is independently owned and operated; and is not dominant in its field on a national basis. The business may be a sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, or any other legal form. In determining what constitutes a small business, the definition will vary to reflect industry differences, such as size standards (reference NAICS (www.census.gov/eos/www/naics/)).

Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB)

A Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB) is a small business that is at least 51 percent owned by one or more individuals who are both socially and economically disadvantaged.

The SBA defines socially disadvantaged groups as those who have been, historically, subjected to "racial or ethnic prejudice or cultural bias" within the larger American culture. Identified groups include: African Americans, Asian Pacific Americans, Hispanic Americans, Native Americans and Subcontinent Asian Americans. Members of other groups may qualify if they can satisfactorily demonstrate that they meet established criteria.

Economically disadvantaged individuals are defined as those for whom impaired access to financial opportunities has hampered the ability to compete in the free enterprise system, in contrast to people in similar businesses who are not identified as socially disadvantaged.

3. Provider’s relationship to EDC is that of an independent contractor. Provider certifies that he/she will not present or allege or claim to third persons in any manner whatsoever that he/she is employed by EDC. Provider further certifies that Provider makes his or her services available to the public through an independently established trade, occupation, profession or business and is licensed as required by applicable law or is part of a separate legally incorporated business, and that EDC is not Provider’s sole client for this type of service. Provider shall determine the method, details, and means of performing the Services. EDC may not control, direct, or otherwise supervise Provider's assistants or employees in the performance of the Services. Provider will not use EDC facilities to perform the Services and Provider is free to make business decisions which affect Provider’s profit or loss. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to create a partnership, agency, employer, employee or joint venture relationship. Provider will be responsible for all taxes arising from compensation and other amounts paid under this Agreement, and shall be responsible for all payroll taxes and fringe benefits of Provider’s employees. Neither federal, nor state, nor local income tax, nor payroll tax of any kind, shall be withheld or paid by EDC on behalf of Provider or its employees. Provider and Provider’s employees will not be eligible for, and shall not participate in, any employee pension, health, welfare, or other fringe benefit plan, of EDC. No workers' compensation insurance shall be obtained by EDC covering Provider or Provider’s employees. If the work is to be performed in the US, Provider certifies that this individual is authorized to work in the US under US Law.
4. Provider indemnifies, defends and holds EDC harmless from and against all liabilities (including reasonable expenses and attorneys' fees) incurred by or imposed on EDC in connection with any suits, or judgments related to Provider’s warranties, representations or performance of the Services under the Agreement.
5. Provider is advised to carry general comprehensive liability insurance in an amount consistent with industry standards.
6. All data, documentation, specifications, models, computer programs and code, and other technical and business information furnished or disclosed to Provider by EDC ("Confidential Information") are the property of EDC, and all copies will be returned to EDC at the end of the performance period. Unless such Confidential Information was previously known to Provider free of any obligation to keep it confidential, or is subsequently made public by EDC, it will be held in confidence by Provider and used only for the purposes of performing the Services.

7. Provider and EDC agree that all written material, software programs, code and documentation, and intangible or tangible inventions arising out of the performance of this Agreement, ("Deliverables") shall belong to EDC. Provider agrees that the Deliverables are specially commissioned and works made-for-hire, and that EDC is deemed the author for copyright purposes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, to the extent that ownership in the Deliverables or any part thereof does not vest in EDC as a work made for hire, Provider hereby irrevocably and exclusively assigns and transfers in whole to EDC all of its right, title and interest in and to the Deliverables. Provider hereby waives any rights to the Deliverables afforded by the U.S. Visual Artists Rights Act, and all so-called "moral rights" to the Deliverables afforded under the law of any country. Provider will, as EDC requests, execute documents required to vest ownership in all right, title and interest in and to the Deliverables in EDC. Provider will acquire all rights as necessary to provide EDC the rights agreed to be conveyed, and will appoint EDC as attorney-in-fact to execute required documents. Provider will treat Deliverables as EDC Confidential Information. Provider will not incorporate any works in the preparation of Deliverables unless such works and their owners (including the owners of any intellectual property rights embodied therein) are identified in advance and in writing to EDC. If such works consist of or incorporate any materials owned by third parties, Provider warrants that he/she has the authority to grant to EDC unrestricted rights and licenses, free of any claim of rights by any other person or entity.

8. EDC may terminate the Agreement for any reason with fourteen (14) days prior written notice. EDC will not be liable for any payments accruing after notice of termination without EDC's approval.

9. If the Scope of Work identifies any individual(s) as Key Personnel then no substitution for such individual(s) may be made unless mutually agreed upon by the parties. In the event Provider anticipates that any Key Personnel may become unavailable or have reduced availability to perform hereunder, Provider will give EDC reasonable notice of the same and justification in writing, sufficient to permit EDC to assess the impact of their unavailability or reduced availability. EDC reserves the right to approve or disapprove any substitutions for Key Personnel proposed by Provider.

10. Provider represents and warrants that it will perform the Services in accordance with industry standards and that the work product will be delivered to EDC with no restrictions or obligations that would impair EDC's rights under this Agreement. Additional Warranty for Work Product Containing Software: Provider further warrants and represents that all work product containing software that is delivered pursuant to this Agreement will conform to written specifications and will be free of "bugs", viruses or similar defects that would render the work product unfit for its intended use. Provider will have 15 business days to modify the work product so that it meets all written specifications and performs as the parties intended. In the event Provider is unable to deliver work product that is "bug" or virus free or otherwise does not conform to written specifications within 15 days following notice from EDC that the work product is unfit for its intended use, EDC may terminate this Agreement and withhold payment or receive a full refund of all payments made to Provider pursuant to this Agreement.

11. Notice of Delay. In the event Provider knows or has reason to know that any actual or potential situation is delaying or threatens to delay the timely performance of the Services required hereunder, Provider will immediately provide written notice thereof, including all relevant information, to EDC. Receipt of such notice by EDC will not constitute a waiver by EDC of the delivery schedule, or any of EDC's rights or remedies under this Agreement.

12. Force Majeure. The Parties to this Agreement will be excused from any performance required hereunder if such performance is rendered impossible or impracticable due to any catastrophes or other major events beyond their reasonable control, including without limitation, war, riot and insurrection; laws, proclamations, edicts, ordinances or regulations; government shutdowns, strikes, lockouts or other serious labor disputes; and floods, fires, earthquakes, explosions or other natural disasters. A party affected by force majeure will take all reasonable measures to remove such party's inability to fulfill its obligations hereunder with a minimum of delay. The affected party will notify the other party of such event as soon as possible, providing evidence of the nature and cause of such event, and will similarly give notice of the restoration of normal conditions as soon as possible. When such events have abated, the Parties' respective obligations hereunder will resume; provided, however, that EDC may terminate this Agreement, at its option, if Provider is rendered unable to perform its obligations hereunder by an event or events of force majeure for more than a total of one hundred and twenty days (120) within any twelve-month period during the Term.

13. The failure of EDC to enforce any right under this Agreement is not a waiver of that right.

14. Provider may not transfer or subcontract any part of this Agreement to another party, without EDC prior written consent.

15. Provider agrees not to use the prime sponsor or EDC's name or make reference to any prime sponsor or EDC employees in publications, news releases, advertising, speeches, technical papers, photographs, sales promotions, or publicity purposes of any form related to this work or data developed hereunder, unless Provider has received express written approval from EDC prior to such use.

16. This is the entire agreement with respect to its subject matter and there are no other agreements, either written or oral. It may be modified only by written amendment, executed by authorized representatives of both parties.

17. The interpretation of this Agreement and transactions or disputes under it shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, U.S.A.

18. Sections 3, 4, 6, 7, 15 and 17 will survive termination of this Agreement.

19. Provider agrees to comply with all applicable federal laws and regulations including affirmative action, E-Verify, equal employment opportunity, use of human participants in research, prohibitions against supporting terrorism, prohibitions on human trafficking and prohibitions against discrimination, and, if the value of this Agreement is $10,000 or more, Executive Order 13496, Notification of Employee Rights Under Federal Labor Laws, see 29 CFR Part 471, Appendix A to Subpart A. Provider hereby certifies that he/she is not presently debarred, suspended, proposed for disbarment, declared ineligible, or voluntarily excluded from covered transactions by any Federal department or agency, and is not delinquent on any State or Federal tax. Provider will cooperate with EDC in its efforts to comply with all laws, regulations and any award terms and conditions imposed on EDC by the sponsor(s) of this project.

20. Provider shall: a) abide by the requirements of 41 CFR 60-741.5(a), which prohibits discrimination against qualified individuals on the basis of disability and requires affirmative action by covered prime contractors and subcontractors to employ and advance in employment qualified individuals with disabilities; and b) abide by the requirements of 41 CFR 60-300.5(a), which prohibits discrimination against qualified protected veterans and requires affirmative action by covered prime contractor and subcontractors to employ and advance in employment qualified protected veterans.
