

Small architecture, interior design, and art consultancy firm looking for talented freelancers to build a relationship for a series of identity, print, and web design opportunities. Immediate contracts for logo / identity design, and web development.

Please send:

- Resume
- Examples of work
- Proposal for Logo / Identity Design package (Logo + stationery)
- Hourly Rate for additional services (brochure, etc)

Additional opportunities include: of developing firm brochures, portfolios, and presentation and proposal templates as well as developing graphic standards for presenting and showcasing the firms work inside and outside the office. The graphic designer(s) will also lead the web site design and maintenance efforts. If applying for the web component, MUST have designed websites, written Java or HTML codes and feel comfortable in that environment.

Responsibilities include:

- Web design is a major function of this job, so we need to make sure that we get people in here that have designed websites, written Java or HTML code and feel comfortable in that environment.
- The graphic designer is responsible for the overall quality of the graphics and marketing collateral of the firm and is responsible for identifying marketing and graphic designers and working with them in executing the marketing plan of the firm.
- Assist in the development and maintenance and deliverable of promotional materials including company standards for graphics, brochures and general and specialized collateral materials.
- Responsible for the updating, design and maintenance of the web site. Will work closely with the CEO, COO and other members of the Web Page Committee.
- Graphic Designer will ensure consistency in all graphic design efforts and conformance with the firms branding initiatives.
- Assist in developing a market/service for clients to graphic design and client branding.
- The Graphic Designer is responsible for obtaining quality Interior Architectural photographers for photo shoots, coordinating the shoot with staff, client and any other necessary parties.

Please send the following to amy@atlasdistrictdesign.com:

- Resume
- Examples of work
- Hourly Rate
- Rough Proposal for Logo / Identity Design package