BACKGROUND INFORMATION

OHSU's mission is to:

- Educate tomorrow's health professionals, scientists, engineers and managers in top-tier programs that prepare them for a lifetime of learning, leadership and contribution.
- Explore new basic, clinical and applied research frontiers in health and biomedical sciences, environmental and biomedical engineering and information sciences and translate these discoveries, wherever possible, into applications in the health and commercial sectors.
- Deliver excellence in health care, emphasizing the creation and implementation of new knowledge and cutting-edge technologies.
- Lead and advocate for programs that improve health for all Oregonians, and extend OHSU's education, research and health care missions through community service, partnerships and outreach.

OHSU is the largest research institution in Oregon. Approximately 2,500 medical, dental, nursing, science and engineering, allied health students are enrolled at OHSU, with another 1,000 people in training programs. OHSU employs approximately 12,600 people, making it the largest employer in Portland and the third largest in Oregon. OHSU traces its origins to the formation in 1887 of the University of Oregon Medical School, one of the oldest medical schools west of the Mississippi River. OHSU was established as a freestanding academic health sciences university in 1974 when the Oregon Legislature mandated the combination of the University of Oregon Medical School, University of Oregon School of Dentistry, and University of Oregon School of Nursing. When it was established, OHSU also included OHSU Hospital, Doernbecher Children's Hospital, and the Child Development and Rehabilitation Center. At that time, OHSU was one of eight units within the Oregon University System and was governed by the Oregon State Board of Higher Education. Since 1974, OHSU has grown to include several research institutes, several smaller research and clinical centers, a number of allied health training programs, and a series of multi-disciplinary units.

In 1995, OHSU became an independent public corporation, and its governance became vested in the OHSU Board of Directors. As a public body, OHSU retains close ties to the State. The OHSU Board is appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate. In addition, that portion of the OHSU budget that comes from the state general fund ($43 million in 2007) appropriation must be submitted to the Legislature through a budget request to the State Department of Administrative Services, which is the same process as with public agency requests.

OHSU's 116-acre main campus, the Marquam Hill campus, is located immediately south of downtown Portland. Approximately 70 acres of the campus currently are developed. OHSU's 263-acre West Campus in Hillsboro includes the OGI School of Science & Engineering, the Oregon National Primate Research Center, the Neurological Sciences Institute and the Vaccine and Gene Therapy Institute. In 2002, OHSU, in collaboration with several other entities, purchased approximately eight acres along the Willamette River in Portland to be OHSU's next area of growth. Construction of the 400,000 square foot Center for Health and Healing is complete on the first portion of the South Waterfront Central District to house physician practices, outpatient surgery, a wellness center, research labs, and educational space. A streetcar and passenger rail line service the area as well as an aerial tram that transports passengers to and from the top of Marquam Hill. In 2004 the Schnitzer family donated a 20-acre parcel of riverside property that will allow OHSU to build a future educational campus just north of the South Waterfront Campus. OHSU's School of Nursing also operates campuses in Ashland, Klamath Falls, Monmouth and LaGrande, OR.

A 10-member Board of Directors governs OHSU. The President of OHSU serves as an ex officio voting member, and the nine members must include one non-student member of the Board of Higher Education; seven individuals who have experience in areas related to OHSU's missions or that are important to the success of OHSU; and one OHSU student. Except for the President, the term of each non-student member is four years and the term of each student member is two years. Each member is eligible for reappointment for one additional term. In addition, the Board of Directors has delegated authority for certain health system matters to the University Health System Board of Directors which also acts in an advisory capacity to the University Board of Directors. The University Health System is composed of University Hospital, Doernbecher Children's Hospital, clinical operations of the School of Medicine, and the OHSU Medical Group.

OHSU is committed to developing business relationships that encourage affirmative action and the participation of emerging small businesses and businesses owned by women and minorities. OHSU encourages and supports the development of minority business enterprises, women business enterprises, and emerging small businesses that meet high quality standards by offering business opportunities available through OHSU contracts. No potential OHSU contractor, supplier, or vendor shall be precluded from consideration, or shall themselves discriminate, based on race, color, religion, sex, age or national origin.

OHSU LIBRARY MISSION

The OHSU Library advances the discovery of knowledge by providing access to relevant, quality information. In order to fulfill this mission, the library will:

- Provide collections and services centered around the needs of our users, regardless of their physical location.
- Maintain facilities that meet the needs of our users.
- Recruit and retain an outstanding staff working within an organizational structure which is efficient, flexible, and responsive to changing user needs.

OHSU LIBRARY AND INFORMATION SERVICES

The OHSU Library includes the Main Library and the Samuel L. Diack Library serving the Department of Science and Engineering. The collection of journals and monographs is housed in four places: the Main Library in the BICC, which houses current materials; the Science & Engineering Library on the West Campus; the Old Library on the Marquam Hill Campus, which houses earlier materials; and an offsite storage facility for the oldest materials. The collection at the Isabel MacDonald Library at the Oregon Regional Primate Research Center is also available to all OHSU faculty, staff and students.

Journals for the MacDonald Library are not part of this proposal.

Library services are available 7 days a week and include reference services, database searching, interlibrary loans, a photocopy service, and classes. As of July 2008 the Library currently has:

- 95,011 monograph titles
- 12,686 books available with electronic access
- 3,025 purchased journal subscriptions
- 12,758 journals with electronic access
- 126 purchased databases

In addition to the traditional print journals and books, the Library provides access to a variety of electronic resources that are available through all OHSU computers. A proxy server allows off campus access to most electronic resources to OHSU faculty, students and staff using their library barcode.

Over 120 databases are available through the Library, including MEDLINE, CINAHL (Cumulative Index to Nursing and Allied Health Literature), PsycINFO, and the Cochrane Databases. OHSU PubMed is available with direct linking to subscribed electronic journals. SciFinder is available online. Engineering, technology, and science databases include Compendex and IEEE. Business and general information is available through the Library's EBSCOhost databases. Many of these databases include full-text articles and link to other subscribed full-text journals.

Over 12,000 books are available in electronic format, including collections from AccessMedicine, Books@Ovid, Books 24X7, MDConsult, netLibrary, Knovel and Stat!Ref. Included in these collections are books on medicine, nursing, technology, business, engineering and a variety of other topics.

OHSU LIBRARY SYSTEMS

- The Library uses the Innovative Interfaces ILS, WebBridge link resolver and Electronic Resources Management (ERM) module.
- The list of Library subscriptions (Attachment 2) that is attached is a sample list and we reserve the right to change this list on an annual basis.
- OHSU's fiscal year is July 1st through June 30th.

Written requests must be clearly marked “Proposal Withdrawal.” Proposals will be effective for a period of sixty (60) days after the scheduled opening date for the proposals.
- P.8. Postponement/Cancellation: OHSU reserves the right to, at its sole discretion, postpone and/or cancel this RFP until further notice. In such instances, OHSU shall provide reasonable notice to interested vendors that such postponement and/or cancellation has been elected by OHSU. Such notice shall not obligate OHSU to continue with the underlying RFP process, nor shall it subject OHSU to damages, of whatever nature, related to such postponement and/or cancellation.
- P.9. Evaluation: OHSU will use the evaluation criteria defined in the “Criteria & Evaluation” section of this document to evaluate all proposals submitted. The inability of any respondent to meet the requirements stated in the Scope of Work may be cause for rejection of the proposal.
- P.10. Award: The issuance of this RFP does not obligate OHSU to award a contract to any participating vendor or vendors responding thereto. Such award shall be at the sole discretion of OHSU.

P.11. Confidential or Trade Secret Information

- P.11.1. Respondents are advised that most documents in the possession of OHSU are considered public records and subject to disclosure under the State Public Records Law (ORS 192.410 & 192.505). An exemption from disclosure is provided for trade secrets. A trade secret is information:
- P.11.1.1. Which is not patented;
 - P.11.1.2. Known only to a limited number of individuals within a commercial concern who have made efforts to maintain the secrecy of the information;
 - P.11.1.3. Which derives actual or potential economic value from not being disclosed to other persons; and
 - P.11.1.4. Which gives its users the chance to obtain a business advantage over competitors not having the information. See ORS 192.501(2) and ORS 96-0166.461-96-0166.475.
- P.11.2. If any part of a proposal is considered a trade secret, the Respondent must clearly designate that portion as confidential in order to protect it from disclosure. Simply marking a section “confidential” will not ensure protection. Respondents must be prepared to advance the reasons why the material is a trade secret. Oregon Health and Science University agrees to maintain information, which is a trade secret confidentially to the extent permitted by law.
- P.11.3. In the event a dissatisfied Respondent or other person seeks copies of a Respondent’s trade secret, OHSU will notify the Respondent of the request.
- P.11.4. In the event the owner of the trade secret does not want the information disclosed, it must agree to indemnify OHSU and hold OHSU harmless against all actions or court proceedings that may ensue, (including attorneys’ fees) which seek to order OHSU to disclose the information.

CAUTION: Do not mark your entire proposal confidential. Mark only pages containing trade secrets as confidential.

- P.12. Rejection Clause: OHSU may reject any proposal not in compliance with all prescribed procurement procedures and requirements, and may reject for good cause any or all proposals upon a finding of OHSU that it is in our best interest to do so.
- P.13. Completeness: Proposals must include all information required herein to be evaluated and considered for an award. Failure to do so may be deemed sufficient cause for disqualification.
- P.14. Eligible Proposals: All proposals will be reviewed for completeness by the Evaluation Committee to determine those that are eligible. “Eligible” is defined as a proposal that meets the requirements specified in this RFP.
- P.15. Evaluation Committee: An Evaluation Committee composed of various OHSU representatives will evaluate eligible proposals. Committee member names will not be released prior to evaluation committee interviews. Respondents will be advised of how many evaluation committee members will be in attendance for planning purposes. Respondents are strongly cautioned not to contact committee members. Doing so may be grounds for dismissal, and in the event such contact could be construed as solicitation, may be referred to the State of Oregon Attorney General’s office. The sole point of contact for this RFP is OHSU’s Issuing Office.
- P.16. Method of Award: The Respondent will be selected on the basis of the most competitive offer based on the criteria outlined in the Criteria & Evaluation.
- P.17. Registered with Oregon: The successful Respondent must be registered to do business in the State of Oregon.
- P.18. Contracting Parties: The contract for these goods and services will be between the Oregon Health and Science University, an Oregon public corporation, and the Respondent.
- P.19. Execution: The successful Respondent will negotiate in good faith and enter into a written contract prepared by OHSU, as indicated in the Timeline on page 1 of this RFP. If a contract cannot be executed with the awarded Respondent the remaining proposals will be considered and an award may be made from those respondents if it is in the best interest of OHSU.
- P.20. Term of Contract: The contract resulting from this proposal will be for a term as indicated on page 1 of this RFP or, if negotiated with the awarded provider, shall be for the delivery of specified products and services per the Scope of Work. The contract can be extended and additional work can be added, if necessary.

P.21. Protests of Contract Award

P.21.1. Any person who has submitted a proposal may protest the award of contract(s). The following process for protesting the award must be followed:

P.21.1.1. Filing: All protests must be filed within three (3) business days of the date of the announcement of provisional awards. The protests must be filed with, and received by OHSU's Issuing Office by 4:00 p.m. PST on the third business day following OHSU's notification of award.

P.21.1.2. Statement of Protest: All protests must state the basis for the protest in clear terms and provide an alternate the protestor finds acceptable. The basis must be a violation of State or Federal procurement law, OHSUe or regulation that is applicable to this procurement.

P.21.1.3. Review by Contracts Officer: The OHSU Contracts Officer will review the protest for meeting the conditions of this section. Accepted protest will be considered on the basis of merit. During the review or reconsideration, the protester may be asked to clarify or amplify statements or to provide proof of claims or other statements. Any such request must be fully responded to by the protester within three business days of the request. In the event a protester fails to respond, the protest will be dismissed and no further protest will be accepted.

P.21.1.4. Response to Protest: After consideration of the protest, the OHSU Contracts Office will provide the protester with a written response that is intended as a complete answer to the protest. OHSU will not amend the RFP during the protest process. OHSU will issue a written OHSUing on the lawfulness of the award. OHSU reserves the right to reject any and all proposals.

P.21.2. Public Information: All protests are public information and any person may request copies.

P.22. Proposal Bond: The Respondent will not be required to provide a Proposal Bond.

P.23. Performance Bond: The Respondent will not be required to provide a performance bond.

P.24. Recyclable Products: The Respondent shall use recyclable products to the maximum extent economically feasible in the performance of the contract work set out in this agreement.

7. INSPECTIONS: Goods furnished under this contract shall be subject to inspection and test by OHSU at times and places as determined by OHSU. 11. TERMINATION: This contract may be terminated by mutual consent of both parties or by OHSU at its discretion. OHSU may cancel an order for goods, in whole or in part, at any time with written notice to Contractor, stating the extent and effective date of termination. Upon receipt of this written notice, Contractor shall stop performance under this contract as directed by OHSU. 13. BREACH OF CONTRACT: Should Contractor breach any of the provisions of this contract, OHSU reserves the right, in addition to other remedies, to cancel this contract upon written notice to Contractor. Contractor shall be liable for any and all damages suffered by OHSU as the result of Contractor's breach of contract, including but not limited to incidental and consequential damages, as provided in ORS 72.7110 to 72.7170.
14. HOLD HARMLESS: Contractor shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless OHSU and its officers, employees, and agents, from all claims, suits or actions of any nature arising out of or related to the activities of Contractor, its officers, subcontractors, agents or employees under or in connection with this contract.

19. WAIVER: Failure of OHSU to enforce any provision of this contract shall not be a waiver or relinquishment by OHSU of its right to such performance in the future nor of the right to enforce any other provisions of this contract.
20. GOVERNING LAW; JURISDICTION; VENUE: This contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Oregon, without resort to any jurisdiction's conflict of laws rules or doctrines. Attachment 1

25. PAYMENT OF CONTRACTOR CLAIMS: If Contractor fails, neglects or refuses to pay promptly, as due, any claim for labor or services furnished to the Contractor or any subcontractor by any person in connection with the goods provided under this contract, OHSU may pay such claim and charge the amount of the payment against funds due or to become due the Contractor under this contract. The payment of a claim by OHSU pursuant to this paragraph 21 shall not relieve the Contractor or its surety, if any, from its obligation with respect to any unpaid claims.
26. INSURANCE:
- If Contractor (including agents, employees, or subcontractors of Contractor) is required to perform work on OHSU premises, Contractor shall maintain in force at its own expense each of the insurances listed below:

- (i) Contractor will use and disclose Individually Identifiable Health Information received from, or created or received by Contractor on behalf of, OHSU in the course of its performance under this Agreement ("PHI") only as required for such performance, as permitted herein or as required by law, and Contractor will use all appropriate safeguards to prevent any use or disclosure of PHI other than as allowed in this Agreement. All PHI (in whatever form) is the exclusive property of OHSU.
- (ii) Contractor shall not, and shall ensure that its directors, officers, employees, contractors and agents (collectively, "Contractor Representatives") do not, use or disclose PHI in any manner constituting a violation of 45 CFR §160 and 164 ("Privacy Standards") if done by OHSU.
- (iii) Contractor agrees that any request to OHSU for disclosure of PHI shall be limited to the minimum necessary to accomplish Contractor's purpose under this Agreement.
- (iv) Contractor shall immediately notify OHSU in writing of any use or disclosure of PHI other than as allowed by this Agreement, and, to the extent practicable, shall mitigate any harmful effect of such use/or disclosure.
- (v) Contractor shall ensure that each of the Contractor Representatives having access to PHI, agree to comply with these restrictions and conditions.
- (vi) If Contractor maintains Records for OHSU that are a part of OHSU's Designated Record Set ("DRS"), Contractor will:

- (vii) Within 10 days of notice from OHSU that OHSU has received a request for an accounting of disclosures of an individual's PHI, Contractor shall make available to OHSU such information in Contractor's possession and as necessary for OHSU to make the accounting required by 45 CFR §164.528, including: (i) the date of the disclosure occurring after April 16, 2003, but no more than 6 years prior to the date of the request, (ii) the name and if known the address of the entity or person who received the PHI, (iii) a brief description of the PHI disclosed, and (iv) a brief statement of the purpose and basis of the disclosure, (collectively, "Disclosure Information"). If the request for an accounting of disclosures of PHI is delivered to Business Associate, then Business Associate shall within 5 business days of receipt, forward such request to OHSU. Business Associate hereby agrees to implement an appropriate record keeping process to enable it to comply with these requirements and shall maintain a record of Disclosure Information for a period of 6 years from the date of each disclosure. Contractor may elect to satisfy its obligations by entering the information required by this subparagraph directly into an OHSU web-based accounting-of-disclosures tool ("Accounting of Disclosures System"). To so elect, Contractor must contact the OHSU Privacy Officer at (503-494-8849), obtain access to the Accounting of Disclosures System and thereafter input into that system, all information required under this subparagraph in conformance with instructions provided by OHSU.
- (viii) Contractor shall make its internal practices, books and records relating to the use and disclosure of PHI available to the Secretary for purposes of determining OHSU's compliance with the Privacy Standards.
- (ix) Compliance with Security Regulations. Beginning no later than April 21, 2005 and continuing thereafter, with respect to any electronic PHI that Business Associate creates, receives, maintains, or transmits, Business Associate shall:

 - ii. Ensure that any agent, including a subcontractor, to whom it provides such electronic PHI agrees to implement reasonable and appropriate safeguards to protect it;
 - iii. Report to OHSU any attempted or successful unauthorized access, use, disclosure, modification, or destruction of electronic PHI, or interference with system operations in an Information System, of which it becomes aware; and
 - iv. Authorize termination of the Existing Agreements, if OHSU determines that the Business Associate has violated a material term of this Agreement.
 - v. Capitalized terms used in this Paragraph shall have the meaning given them in the Security Standards.

Upon termination of this Agreement for any reason, Contractor shall either return or destroy all PHI maintained by Contractor in any form retaining no copies. If the return or destruction is not feasible, Contractor shall extend the aforementioned protections to such PHI and such PHI shall be used or disclosed solely for such purpose(s) that make the return or destruction of such PHI infeasible.

Attachment 1

- (xi) Notwithstanding any limitation on damages contained herein, Contractor shall indemnify and hold OHSU harmless from and against any and all liability and costs, including attorneys fees, arising out of or related to a breach of these requirements by Contractor, its agents or subcontractors.
- (xii) Contractor agrees to amend this Agreement as necessary to allow each party to comply with (i) the Privacy Standards, (ii) the Standards for Electronic Transactions (45 CFR parts 160 and 162) and (iii) the Security Standards, (collectively, the “Standards”), as they are amended from time to time by the Secretary.
