

State of Connecticut
Board of Trustees for Community-Technical Colleges

Call for Consultants

The State of Connecticut Board of Trustees for Connecticut Community-Technical Colleges System (hereinafter referred to as Connecticut Charts-A-Course) is seeking qualified professional individuals to act as consultants to assist with the following support services: curriculum development in early childhood education and related fields; expertise in NAEYC accreditation standards and criteria; mentors for teachers and directors of early childhood programs; observations of training ; train-the-trainer presenters in the content areas of adult learning theory, infant & toddler development, inclusion child care, early language and literacy; educational support services for reading, writing and math proficiency; Child Development Associate (CDA) credential advising; brochure and publication development and printing; as well as computer technical and web page support. Those individuals who have the relevant backgrounds and/or credentials, as well as the ability to speak Spanish or another language are strongly encouraged to apply for services effective immediately through June 30, 2009.

Copies of the Call for Consultants may be obtained from BOT-CTC website, www.commnet.edu, www.ctcharts-a-course.org, or www.DAS.ct.gov. Deadline for response submission is June 1, 2009 a 2:00pm.

Submissions should be mailed to:

Kelly Corbin
Community-Technical Colleges
61 Woodland Street
Hartford, CT 06105
Attn: Call for Consultants