REQUEST FOR QUALIFICATIONS FOR A WAYFINDING DESIGN FOR DOWNTOWN SAN DIEGO

Centre City Development Corporation (CCDC), an equal opportunity contractor, is requesting qualifications from an architectural signage firm or a team of consultants to plan, design and implement an updated and enhanced wayfinding signage system for downtown San Diego and the waterfront that includes preparation of specifications and bidding documents. Subconsultant opportunities could include urban design, graphic design and signage fabrication.

Proposals from small businesses, disabled veteran-owned businesses, women-owned businesses, firms owned by underrepresented ethnic groups and local firms are encouraged.

There will be a presubmittal meeting on Nov. 21, 2008 from 1:30 p.m. to 3 p.m. at the CCDC offices at 401 B Street, Suite 400, in downtown San Diego. Subconsultants are encouraged to attend and network with prospective prime consultants.

Deadline for questions and answers to CCDC is Dec. 4 at 5 p.m. Solicitation text and attachments can be downloaded from CCDC's Web site at www.ccdc.com (click on Business Opportunities, RFPs and RFQs, current RFPs and RFQs) or can be picked up at CCDC (401 B Street, Suite 400, San Diego, CA 92101). For questions, please contact Sachin Kalbag, 619-235-2200, kalbag@ccdc.com.
